Subject: Introducing Ms. Ilisapeci Masivesi (CPCC)

SPREP is pleased to announce the appointment of Ms. Ilisapeci Masivesi to the position of Clean Pacific Campaign Coordinator (CPCC). Ms. Masivesi is a national of Fiji. She is a graduate of the University of the South Pacific, Fiji with a Bachelor in Environmental Science. Prior to joining SPREP, Ms. Masivesi worked in various organisations in Fiji including the Ministry of Environment, where she was employed as the Climate Change Coordinator, and also with the Australian Agency for International Development, as Programme Manager for a number of health progammes & activities. She has also been involved in voluntary work in the UK over the last 3 years. Ms. Masivesi started official duties on Monday 5th March 2012.

The CPCC will coordinate the implementation of SPREP's Clean Pacific Campaign in 2012 and will be working closely with the Waste Management & Pollution Control Team.

We welcome Ms. Masivesi to SPREP and look forward to her contribution to the Year of the Clean Pacific.

Yours sincerely,

Kosi Latu
Acting Director General
