SUBJECT: Pacific Island Community adaptive Co-management Course (PICCC) 2015

Purpose

This circular calls your attention to the Pacific Island Community adaptive Co-management Course (PICCC) 2015 and invites applications from natural resource managers, community conservation leaders, conservation practitioners and organizations in the Pacific Region to attend or sponsor a participant to this regional conservation training course on Community-based Conservation and Adaptive Management.

Attached is the background information to the course and application form. For further details on arrangements for participation or other logistical issues for the course, please contact Professor Bill Aalbersberg, University of the South Pacific (aalbersberg@usp.ac.fj) or Vainuupo Jungblut, Ramsar Officer Oceania (vainuupoj@sprep.org).

Yours sincerely,

Kosi Latu
Acting Director General
