

Main Highlights

July 2015 – July 2016

18th PIRT Annual Meeting July, 2015

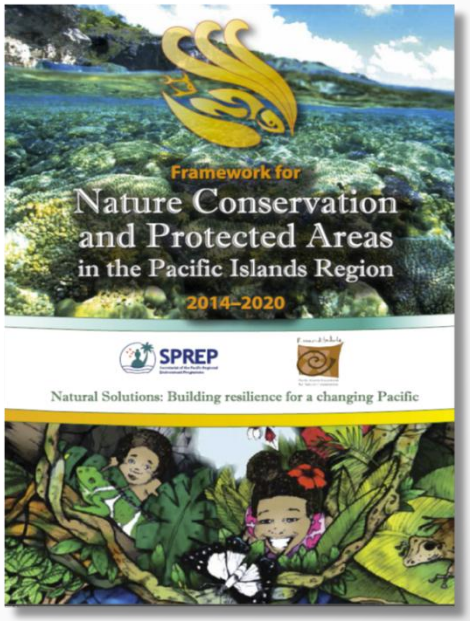

- Better integration and coordination across the working groups

- Linkages between climate change and biodiversity e.g through the Pacific Climate Change Roundtable

- Synergies between TK and science for decision making
- Strategies for upscaling EbA
- Linkages between NBSAPs and the Framework
- Strengthen capacity to monitor and report on the Framework and NBSAPs

PIRT Membership Agreement signed

- commitment to the Framework for Nature Conservation and Principles and code of conduct

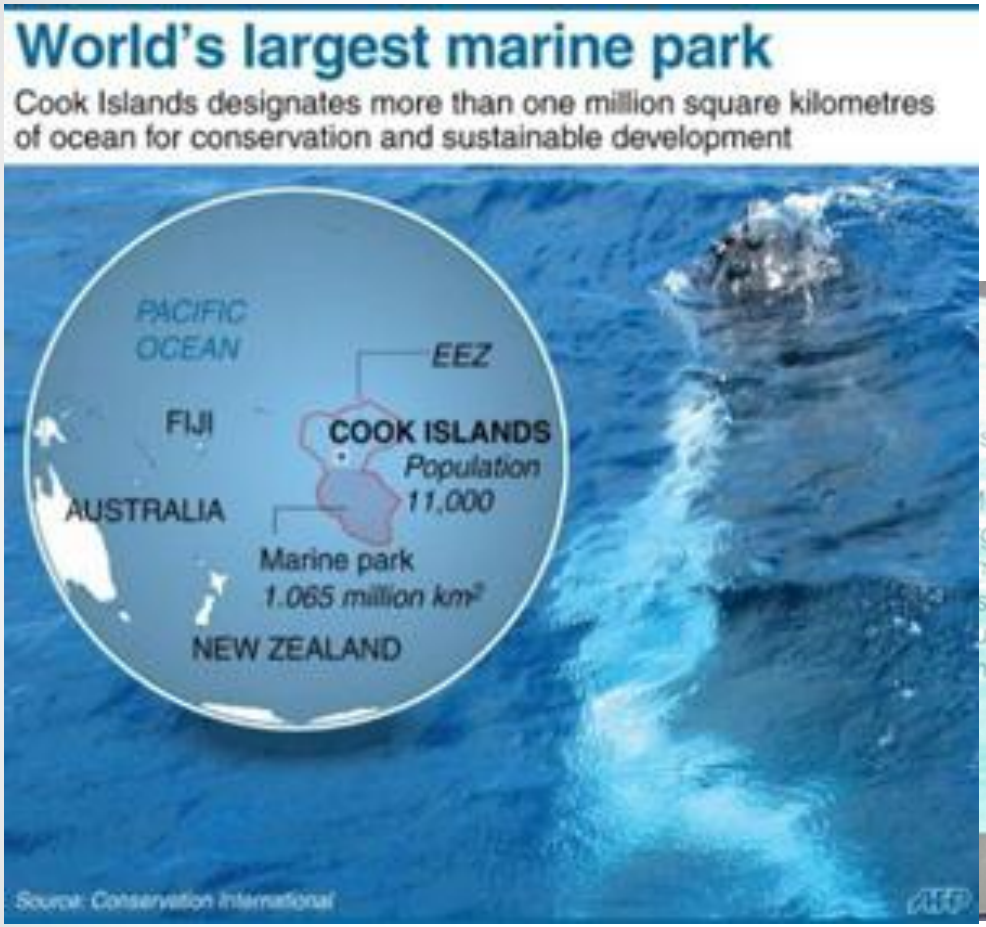

Size Matters! Lessons learnt in going to scale in Pacific Marine Protected Areas (MPAs)

Side event at the SPREP meeting, September, 2015

Strategic communication planning

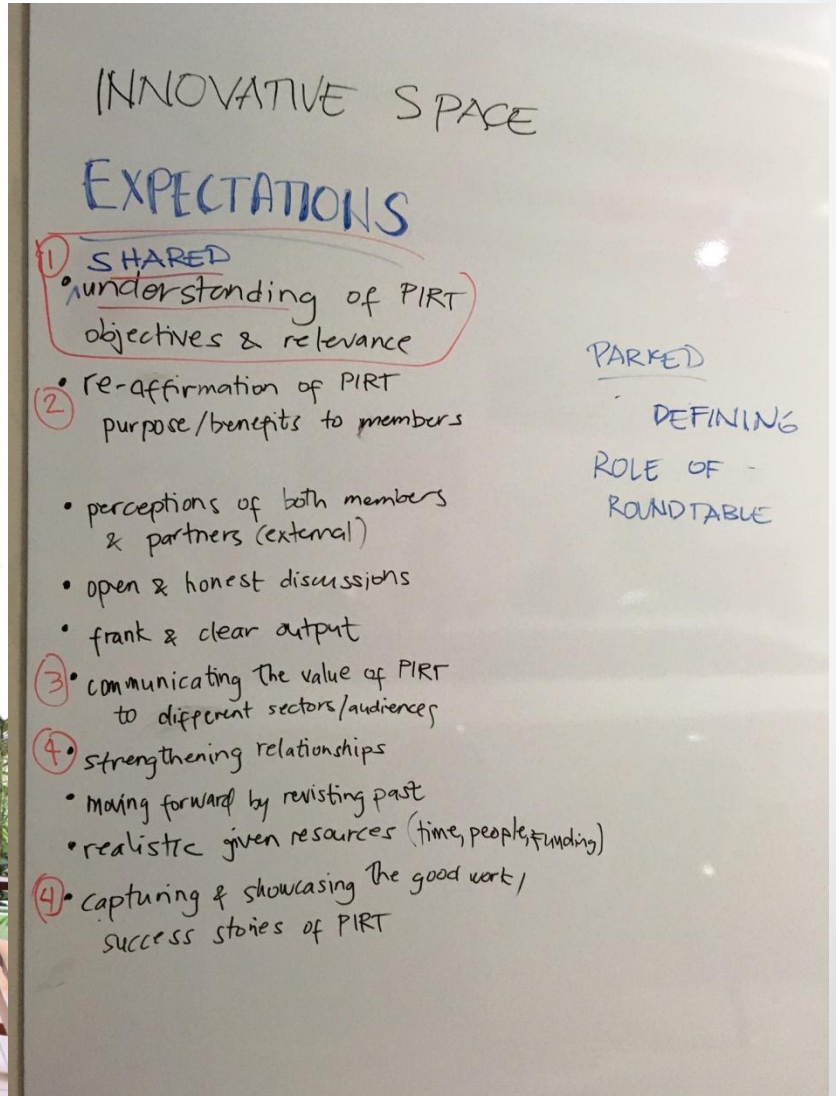

…. Relevance, values, engagement,

innovative space,

sustainable development …

Reaching out to PIRT members and partners …

PIRT Newsletter

PIRT communication and outreach

https://www.sprep.org/pirt

Where to from here?

- 2015 – Paris & Climate Change
- 2016 – Oceans…
  - Protected areas,
  - Fisheries? Coastal & Offshore?
  - Ocean planning?
  - 2017 – UN Oceans Summit – Global leadership and impacts

  Pacer Plus & Free trade – impacts on EIAs & environmental commitments?

- Funding Mechanisms
  - Leveraging GEF & GCF
  - New opportunities

Green / Blue Economy / Sustainable Development

- Tuna & PNA

  increasing Tuna revenue
  - Expanding on conservation measures
- Beyond Tuna?
  - Healthy habitats – mangroves, coral reefs
  - Coastal fisheries
  - Tourism
- Forests & Logging
- Endemics & Invasives…
- Engaging communities – including the urban

Mainstreaming…

Changing the approach…

- All of Government
- Multi-sectoral

Building new platforms…

- National & regional policy
- Institutional

- Changing the conversation..
  - Influencing and engaging leadership

Reinvigorating the RT

?....

PIRT webpage: www.sprep.org/pirt

Email: pirtsecretariat@sprep.org